

November 7-9, 2008

Diefenbunker, Canada's Cold War Museum

3911 Carp Road, Carp, Ontario, K0A 1L0

Sponsored by: The Canadian War Museum and the Brookstreet Hotel

Keynote Address:

New Approaches to Cold War Research

Dr. Christian Ostermann,
Director, Cold War History
International Project, Woodrow
Wilson Center, Washington, USA

Other presenters include:

- Frances Gary Powers Jr., Director, National Cold War Museum, USA
- Dr Gordon Johnston, School of Cultural Studies, Leeds Metropolitan University, U.K
- Paul Hjartarson, Professor of English and Film Studies, University of Alberta, Edmonton, Alberta
- Jan Van der Fraenen, Attaché, Royal Museum of the Armed Forces and Military History [Kemmel Bunker], Brussels, Belgium

Registration fee is $100 per person ($50 one-day rate), $75.00 per student ($35 one-day rate)

Conference Hotel (special rates):
Brookstreet Hotel
(613) 271-1800

For more information, visit www.diefenbunker.ca or contact us by email at administration@diefenbunker.ca or by phone at 613-839-0007

 Diefenbunker
Canada's Cold War Museum
Musée canadien de la Guerre froide

1998-2008

Cold Culture: A Symposium on New Approaches to Cold War Research, Education and Expression

This international event has been organized to bring together a broad range of professional scholars, artists, filmmakers, teachers, museum professionals and journalists who are involved in the exploration of themes in Cold War history, and who shape how the conflict is understood today. This conference will be a forum for these diverse voices to reflect on and share their approach to the Cold War in different media.