

VOLUNTEER RECOGNITION AWARDS 2010 Nomination Form

In an effort to recognize the unique contributions of our volunteer base the staff and Board of Directors at the Diefenbunker, Canada's Cold War Museum are pleased to request your nomination(s) for volunteers who have gone above and beyond the call of duty, presented exemplary leadership skills, and have helped to enrich the experience of visitors to the Museum.

We are seeking nominations for the following awards:

- 1) Professional Contribution Award
presented to a volunteer whose professional services maintain or enhance the operations of the Diefenbunker;
- 2) Sustainability Champion Award presented to a volunteer who contributes to the sustainable health of the organization through committees, assistance with events, fundraising, etc.;
- 3) Volunteer Interpreter Award presented to a volunteer guide who has shown dedication and excellence, and;
- 4) Lifetime Achievement Award
presented to a volunteer who has provided long term value to the Museum.

Awards will be presented at the Diefenbunker's Annual General Meeting in May.

Eligibility

Eligible nominees include all active volunteers who are non-paid staff or administrators at all levels. Do you know a volunteer who fits one or more of these categories? If so, please complete the nomination form on the back of this information page by April 23, 2010 at 4:30. Completed forms can be submitted to Christine McGuire, Education and Volunteer Manager, by:

Fax: 613.839.3725

Email: c.mcguire@diefenbunker.ca

or leave in a sealed envelope in Christine's mailbox at the Museum.
